Figure 4: Cache state at end of loops in Problem 2. The shaded blocks are cache-resident. There are exactly 128 shaded memory blocks. Arrays A and B share a block, as do arrays B and C. The block with the heavy outline in each array maps to cache set 0.